

Margit Sky Project

Roots, Rock, Celtic & Originals

Rod's First Nations name is Little Sky — when you put Margit and Rod together, you have the Margit Sky Project.

With Margit's vocals and rhythm guitar, and Rod's jaw-dropping lead guitar, they have become a very sought after duo in the BC Interior and Alberta.

The Margit Sky Project has been fortunate enough to open for Kevin Costner and Modern West, Burton Cummings, Trooper, Barney Bentall, Elliot Brood, and Ridley Bent. Margit and Rod are very passionate about their music, and together, have released two CDs.

MARGIT GOSSAGE – Raised in Toronto and then Vancouver, Margit grew up listening to rock, folk and classical music. Both of her parents played piano and always had music playing in the house. After moving to Kamloops in 1992, Margit was inspired by a good friend to pick up the guitar and develop her skills. She built a successful career as a local musician and hasn't looked back since her first gig at Sun Peaks Resort.

ROD BANDURA – Born in Vancouver, Rod started playing guitar at age 10. By age 16, he was playing in bands and hasn't stopped. In the mid 1990's, Rod was a key member of the Indigenous band, Waskesu. They had the pleasure of playing for the Prime Minister and at the Commonwealth Games in Victoria along with Susan Aglukark and Kashtin. Waskesu also performed frequently on Much Music.
